BLAMES BONUS SYSTEM

Chicago, Feb. 19.—Retention by the National League of the bonus contract system was partly responsible for the Federal League's success yesterday in signing from Seaton, of the Philadelphia National League team's pitching staff, to play with the Brooklyn Federal League club, according to Joe Tinker, manager of the Chicago Federals.

The Philadelphia contract sent here for his signature would make it necessary for him to win 60 per cent of his games these days. Our most exclusive loxing clubs often fail to furnish the action which apparently can be seen any night at the St. Nicholas Rink.

They had to pay 34 admission to see the Giants and White Sox play at Nice, and the speculators probably got all the choice reservations at that.

told Tinker.
Seaton, according to Tinker, said he would rather accept a straight Federal League contract than speculate on his own luck and the strength of this year's Philadelphia team.

Philadelphia, Feb. 19.—William Baker, president of the Phillies, denied Tinker's Chicago interview. He declared that seaton was not playing under the bonus contract system.
